

Please do not weaken the Wisconsin "No Call List". If anything, it could be even tighter. We are now starting to get pre-recorded messages from telemarketers. They dump their message and run. We would never buy from any unsolicited contact. We actually avoid doing business with people who annoy us with these calls. It's a waste of everyone's time. They should just buzz off.